Arion Bank enters a market making agreement for its covered bonds with Íslandsbanki, Kvika and Landsbankinn

Arion Bank has entered into market making agreements with Íslandsbanki, Kvika and Landsbankinn on covered bonds issued by Arion Bank on Nasdaq Iceland hf.

The purpose of the agreements is to stimulate trading with the bonds covered by the agreements in order to generate normal market prices and to foster effective and transparent price formation.

The market makers will submit bids and asks for the bonds every day. The minimum amount at nominal value for bond series shall be ISK 80 million. The bond series ARION CBI 29 og ARION CBI 48 eru are not subject to aforementioned condition and the minimum amount shall be ISK 40 million for bond series ARION CBI 29 and ISK 20 million for bond series ARION CBI 48. Market makers are not obliged to submit bids and asks for new bond series until the series has reached ISK 3 billion and the minimum bid /ask size shall be ISK 20 million until the series has reached ISK 5 billion, when the minimum shall increase to ISK 60 million until the series has reached ISK 10 billion and then the minimum shall be ISK 80 million.

The maximum bid-ask spread depends on the number of years to maturity at any given time, cf. table below.

Years to maturity	Maximum spread
0-6 months	No maximum
6 months - 2 years	0.20%
2-4 years	0.30%
4-6 years	0.35%
6-9 years	0.60%
9-12 years	0.70%
12-18 years	1.00%

18 years or more

1.15%

An exemption is made from the maximum bid-ask spread requirement in the table above for inflation-linked series with less than 5 years to final maturity. The Bond series ARION CBI 25 and ARION CBI 26 are exempted in accordance with the above. Market makers are nonetheless required to submit bids and asks for these series, but the maximum bid-ask spread requirement is not applicable.

Arion Bank pays the market makers commission and will provide them with bond lending facilities. The maximum loan in each series of covered bonds shall be ISK 320 million at nominal value for benchmark series and ISK 80 million at nominal value for other series.
